New tech lab system due in '93

By AL POST
ANP Staff Writer

The purchase of a 21st century style $139,362 Trans-Tech Lab 2000 unit—that will offer Romulus Junior High School students a greater scope of self learning in technology fields—has been approved by members of the Romulus Community School Board.

The purchase, recommended by Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Bedell, will include 15 work stations, with two students possibly working at each site. Bedell said he feels it will be a tremendous motivational tool for junior high school students and could help spur studies and test scores in one of the chronic problem areas in the school district—the transient student, that is one who spends less than three years in the district.

“We will be the first school district in Michigan to get the system,” explained John Juriga, a vocational education instructor at the school.

The lab system—coupled with the physical changes currently under way at the school—will be operational in the fall of 1993.

“Smartlab is a computer-managed network that gives students access to and control of content and applications in the areas of robotics, computer-aided manufacturing systems, simulations, word processing and computer assisted publishing,” according to promoters of the system.

Bedell and school board trustee Pat Patterson first examined the lab in operation in California last summer. Several weeks later Art McPharlin, assistant to the school superintendent, and a number of junior high and elementary school officials saw the same lab in operation.

William Murphy, director of vocational education, said the advanced technology program will make learning more fun for students.

The hands-on effort will allow students to get involved in many projects at one time, ranging from desk top publishing to rocketry, he said.

McPharlin called the lab concept absolutely remarkable and stated it would, “offer individual intra-learning stations allowing classes to work in small groups, while using cooperative learning techniques.”

The lab unit frees up a teacher to circulate and instruct students individually and in small groups, according to McPharlin.

Students will get financial tributes

By AL POST
ANP Staff Writer

Educators at Romulus Senior High School are hoping to complete a plan soon that would give financial rewards to students with high academic grades or perfect attendance records.

Gail Coleman, a Romulus high school teacher, informed members of the school board last week that efforts are nearly complete on setting up a privilege card program that would permit high school students to gain discounts on store items or free food and drinks or possibly even two-for-one video use on week-ends.

“We are patterning our program on a similar successful effort at Willow Run High School,” Coleman said. “The effort there has had a dramatic impact on raising academic and behavioral efforts and we are hoping it can do the same here.”

In a prepared statement for the school board, Coleman declared, “We have always rewarded our accomplished athletes, now it is time to reward kids for their academic accomplishments, as well.”

She continued, “Businesses reward employees who reach goals, why can't we do the same in education? In business, if the rewards are meaningless, good people are lost. “Schools have to make rewards meaningful, too,” Coleman said. “The comprehensive program we have in mind would give many students an opportunity to succeed, to be recognized and to receive an award.”

The two main goals of the program are to establish reachable goals for students and to provide visible and valuable rewards for achievement that appeal to students.

Each set of privilege cards would offer a different scope of rewards for achievements such as a gold card for students with all A's (4.0 average), a silver card for students with all A's and B's (3.0 to 3.9 average), a white card for all B's and C's (2.0 to 2.9 average) and a maroon card for perfect attendance.

Coleman said the effort would also aid area businesses as the cards would help students and parents become more familiar with cooperating businesses, encourage them to frequent the businesses more often and improve public relations with the community.

The cards would be issued at the end of each report card period in November, January, March and June and would be effective until the day after the next marking period begins.

Coleman said it is hoped that the program could be implemented during this school year. Area businesses are still being contacted by high school representatives on the types of discounts or free offerings that would be available to local students.

Financial stability is top priority for city

By AL POST
ANP Staff Writer

The financial stability of Romulus has been proclaimed as the top city goal and priority, Mayor Beverly McAnally declared Tuesday following meetings with 22 city department heads.

McAnally said the group met for a full day in November and again for several hours the night of Feb. 27 to determine the top immediate needs of the city and its residents.

To gain the much-needed financial stability, McAnally said, “We realize that many elements need to be addressed including housing, schools, employment, maintaining and diversifying the city's industrial and retail base.”

Increased funding is a major concern of department heads, she said, to allow Romulus to upgrade many of its existing buildings, streets and infrastructures.

Some of the items discussed, McAnally said, were increased millage rates, a possible city income tax to tap the many employees who work in the city, but don't live there and a community-wide foundation which could accept gifts of cash, goods or services on behalf of the city.

Currently the city charter blocks a city income tax and it could not go into effect until voters approve a referendum authorizing such a tax, McAnally said.

Since many people working at Metro Airport, General Motors and many other large plants within the city do not live there, McAnally said, such a tax could have a major positive impact on the financial status of the city.

At the same time, such a tax could allow the city to lower local real estate taxes for local home and business owners.

The second goal would be to improve the quality of housing in Romulus, she said. That effort would include reducing blight, improving the residential visual environment, improved roads and even re-examining the city zoning restrictions particularly with new airport flight patterns.

To stimulate the housing effort, McAnally said, “We will have to sit down with local and area realtors and stress housing improvements.”

The remaining four priorities listed to date are: the image of the city and public relations efforts; citizen awareness of what's happening within the city; education

Veterans hospitals backed

By AL POST
ANP Staff Writer

Veterans hospitals should be reserved first and foremost for American veterans, Romulus Councilman Russell Lambert told his fellow council members.

Lambert asked his fellow council members and Romulus citizens as a whole to support an effort by Sen. Richard Shelby (D-Ala.) to halt the Department of Veterans Affairs Rural Health Initiative under which non-veterans can receive care at veterans hospitals at two sites in Alabama and Virginia.

The Rural Health Care Initiative is a joint project initiated by Health and Human Services Secretary Louis Sullivan and DVA Secretary Edward Derwinski that permits non-veterans to use veterans hospitals for treatment.

“No one is more painfully aware than I of the current crisis in rural health care,”

Russell Lambert

Shelby said, “But such health care should not be provided at the expense of our nation's veterans,” he declared.

Shelby then introduced legislation that would end the pilot program immediately, calling it a “policy that is neither reasonable nor right, neither rational nor justified.

Lambert complained that this action is just one more incident where American veterans are “coming in second” on priority lists. He feels that as the national population ages and needs are pressed for additional senior citizen care—veterans will continue to be shortchanged more and more.

Fellow Councilman Jimmie Raspberry echoed Lambert's cry stating, “Veterans have made tremendous sacrifices for our nation and many have ended up crippled or maimed for life.”

Raspberry said this is another case where we need to remind governmental leaders of their role as our representatives. We need to take control back from big government.”

The Romulus City Council members then approved a resolution in support of Shelby's effort to keep veterans hospitals entirely for veterans health services.

Area pastors form new group

A new Christian pastors' association was formed Tuesday morning linking religious leaders in Romulus, Inkster, Westland and Wayne.

The Rev. William Kren of the Cherry Hill Evangelical Church hosted the organizational meeting at his church in Inkster. He also was elected president of the new association known as the Western Wayne County Holiness Association.

The Rev. Neil Swanger of the Ball Road Tabernacle of Romulus was named vice president and the Rev. Craig Watson of the Westland Christian Union Church was selected as secretary-treasurer.

The association also named chairpersons of three standing committees including Lt. Heidi Smith of the Norwayne Salvation Army named to head the Pro-Life Committee; the Rev. David Dahlberg of the Spreading Oak Tabernacle of Inkster was selected as head of the Anti-Pornography Committee and Swanger was named to lead a Community Service Committee that will study ways to organize community-wide religious services.

The next meeting is slated for 8:30 a.m. April 9 at the Westland Christian Union Church at Wayne and Marquette roads.

Last year, the Easter Seal societies of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties served 38,232 children and adults. Nationally, more than 1.1 million people were served.

The combined budget of the Tri-County Easter Seal societies is more than 1 million. More than 95 percent of the revenue collected is retained locally to support community-based programs for disabled people.

For the past 70 years, Easter Seals has been committed to equality, dignity and independence for people with disabilities. It provides direct rehabilitation services to children and adults and to their families. These services include speech, occupational and physical therapy, equipment loan, day camping, peer support groups, therapeutic recreation and information and referral services.

Of the 38,232 people served in the tri-county area in 1991, 1,908 had postural disorders and 622 had orthopedic impairments which were present at birth. More than 330 people with language and voice dysfunctions were treated. Help also was extended to people with learning disorders, geriatric problems, neurological conditions, bone and joint injuries plus visual and hearing dysfunctions.

Special school board meeting set March 10

A special Romulus Community School Board meeting is planned for 7 p.m. March 10 in the Romulus Junior High cafeteria.

The meeting should be of special interest to parents of current sixth and seventh grade students, Art McFarlin, assistant to Superintendent of Schools Dr. Willkam Bedell, revealed.

Parents and other interested individuals will be given a tour of the junior high school renovation effort and later will be bused to the Western Campus of Wayne County Community College, where they will be shown the 10 classrooms the junior high school students will be using beginning next fall.

Members of the school board approved renting 10 classrooms on the college campus to help accelerate the construction at the junior high school.

The effort still needs the approval of the college board of trustees.

Vandal smashes business windows

A weekend vandal smashed 17 window panes in a downtown office building and a larger window in an auto parts store several blocks away, police reported Monday.

Police said they found rocks and pieces of bricks inside the office building located at Goddard and Sterling as well as the remnants of the 12 inch by 12 inch window panes.

A few blocks away in the 36000 block of Goddard a 3-foot by 4-foot window was smashed, but not knocked out of its moulding of the auto parts store.

No suspects have been apprehended in connection with either incident, police said.

The bus will return the evening of April 10.

Bertschinger completed the two-year studies recently and graduated along with 70 others from across the U.S. and Canada.

She is responsible for the operation of all recreation department adult and children sports programs in the city. She also supervises the summer playground and after school programs.

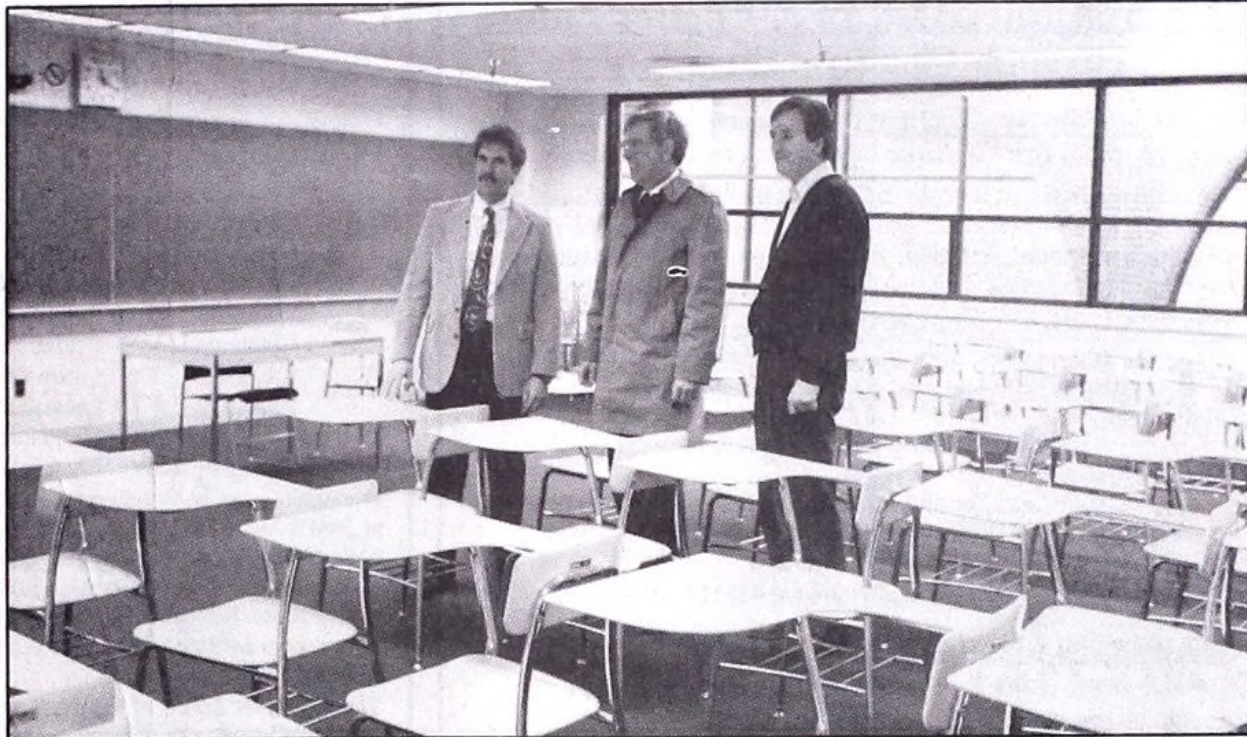

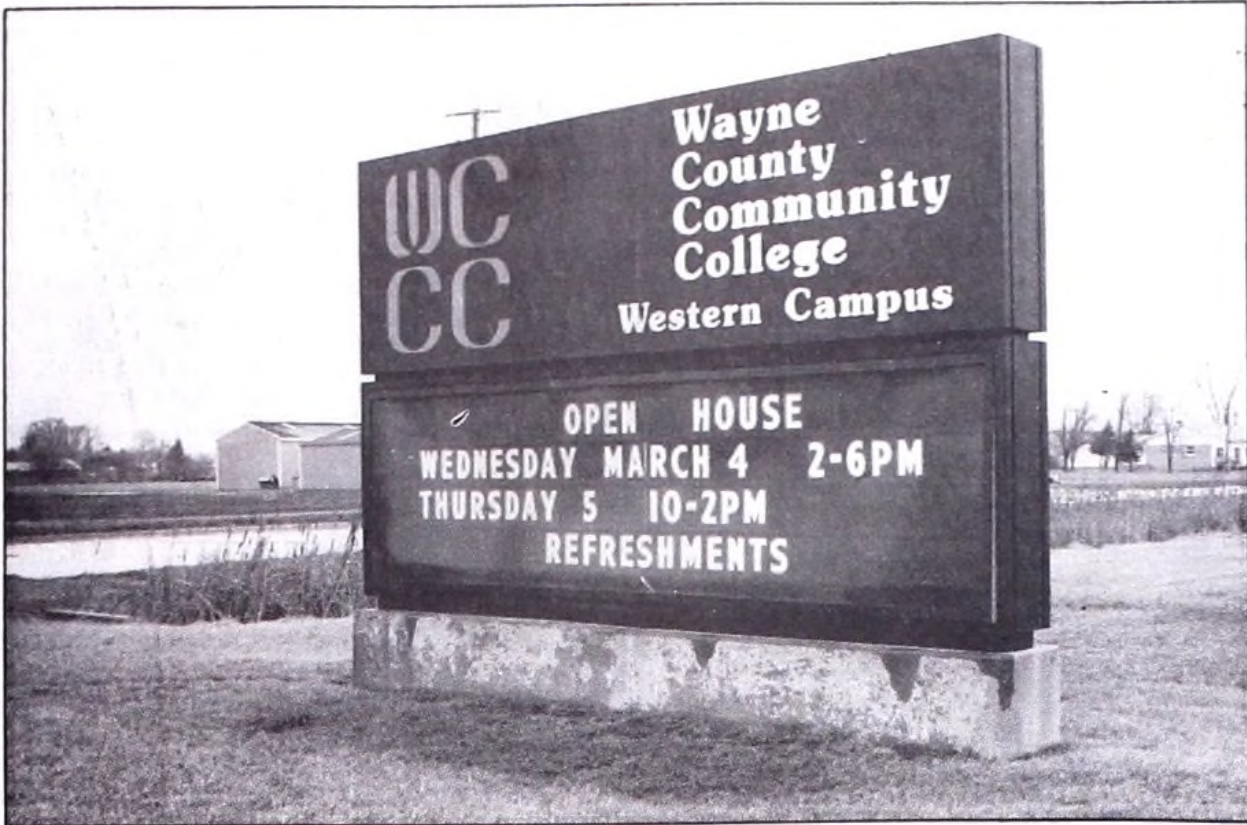

She has served in her present position for two years.

College classrooms checked

By AL POST
ANP Staff Writer

In response to concerns regarding the safety of students involved in a proposed plan to utilize 10 Wayne County Community College classrooms during construction at the junior high school, Romulus school officials traveled the route students would use last week.

The distance from the junior high school to the Western Campus of WCCC, was clocked at 2.7 miles and took a little more than six minutes traveling at below-average speeds.

Thomas Hoss, WCCC Western Campus business manager, affirmed that students would be bused up to the door of the classroom building and would climb one flight of stairs to classrooms above the college vo-tech area.

Restrooms would be in an area immediately adjoining the classroom areas, Hoss said.

Both WCCC and Romulus junior high school would share in the security needs for the students during the class period times, according to district officials.

A Romulus school administrator, counselor and instructors would also be on site at WCCC each day.

Students would be bused there shortly before school begins each class day and then would be returned to the junior high school in time for lunch.

A second group of students would be bused early in the afternoon and would be returned to the junior high school before closing each day.

Classes that require no lab work, such as English, mathematics and social studies, would be at WCCC with about 320 students working in 10 separate classrooms in both the morning and afternoon sessions. All other classes and lunch periods would continue each day at the junior high school.

While the program to lease classrooms at the college campus has already been approved by members of the Romulus school board, it still needs to be approved by the WCCC Board of Trustees to be operational.

The reason for the $16,000 leasing effort, Superintendent Schools Dr. William Bedell explained, is to reduce the construction time during the current renovation of the junior high school.

A second reason, Bedell said, is to give the junior high students a feel of campus life and thereby encourage them to consider advanced education following high school graduation.

The school renovation program, which calls for the gutting of the current school and upgrading it to a year 2000 level, began in February and will be completed next year.

According to an earlier memorandum from Kenneth J. LaSalle, vice president of administration and finance at the college, the classrooms will be available for approximately 180 days from September 1992 to June 1993.

Romulus schools must provide WCCC with a valid certificate of insurance covering any injuries to students, staff or visitors to the WCCC campus area as part of the agreement, Bedell explained.

Longtime treasurer receives award

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

When members of the Huron Valley Conservation Club searched for a worthy recipient of its annual Nobel Hamrick award, they had to look no further than to their own treasurer, Ernest Knust.

The award, named after an early recipient, was presented to Knust at a recent awards dinner "in appreciation for his continuing dedication and effort in service to the club."

Currently serving as HVCC treasurer, Knust has filled the post for several terms in addition to working on numerous club projects. Recognition as the HVCC Member of the Year was awarded to Knust because of his work for the club and because he is "an all-around nice guy," according to HVCC members.

"Ernie has been involved in almost every project the club has taken on during the past five years," said fellow member Keith Bruder. "One of his biggest projects is coordinating the tent rental program, which is one of our major fund-raising projects. The club rents out 20-by-30-foot tents for parties, graduations and special events."

Club members noted that Knust instituted the idea of a Kids for Camp Dinner-Dance at the Moose Lodge 936 to earn money to fund camping experiences for youngsters. The Feb. 8 event earned enough money to send 25 local children to summer camp.

"Because of his active involvement in almost every project we sponsor, Ernie earned the honor. He is a sportsman, himself, and he works hard for conservation," said HVCC President Kris Matthew.

"Ernie also has brought a lot of new members into the club," said HVCC Vice President Wayne Lybeck.

In addition to his work with the HVCC, Knust serves on the Van Buren Township environmental board, DNR Willow Creek Clean-Up and township bridge builders.

Other Hamrick trophy winners were Wayne Lybeck, 1990; Robert Lang, 1989; Zana Diehl, 1988; Fran Elliott, 1987; Marty Elliott, 1986; M. Tyree, 1985; Doug Mierzewski, 1984; Dale Lorbeske, 1980; Mike Welt, 1978; J. ## Minor changes are made in agreement

By AL POST
ANP Staff Writer

Minor changes in the Western Wayne Auto Theft Elimination Effort agreement were approved Monday night by members of the Romulus City Council.

Lt. Sandra S. Miller, commanding officer of the special anti-theft unit, along with Romulus Police Chief Fred Dansby, who currently serves as chairman of the unit, requested the changes recommended by Assistant State Attorney General George M. Elworth.

The changes included: (1) that a majority of the entire board of directors present at the meeting shall constitute a quorum, (2) that the alphabetical rotation of the unit chairperson be based on the name of the municipality not the city representative, (3) that the unit shall not possess the power to levy any type of tax within the boundaries of any member public agency, nor shall it have the power to indebted any of the same agencies and (4) that upon dissolution of the unit, no part of the assets shall be passed on to any private person, but shall be divided on an equitable basis among the member agencies.

The law enforcement departments which presently participate in the unit include Romulus, Belleville, Canton Township, Huron Township, Northville, Northville Township, Plymouth, Redford Township, Sumpter Township, Van Buren Township, Wayne, Westland and the Michigan State Police.

Police Chief

The changes are being made in the interlocal agreement approved by Gov. John Engler Dec. 9, 1991.

The effort-centered many times in the Metro Airport-has had a dramatic impact on lowering car and car part thefts in recent months, Dansby said.

The unit was created because of the extremely high incidence of auto theft in Michigan, Dansby explained.

Fire hose bid approved

A $9,464 bid for new snap-type rubber fire hoses that chemicals won't damage was awarded Monday night to R.D.B. Enterprises Inc. of Roseville.

Members of the city council awarded the low bid on the recommendation of Fire Chief William Greenslait.

Greenslait said the hose will be used to update the equipment on Fire Engine 341

(a first-run unit) that is stationed at Fire Station Four.

City council members also approved a request from Greenslait to let bids for four new Scott Air Packs, the devices used by firemen to give them extra oxygen while fighting smoky fires.

Greenslait said both purchases are regular updates of current equipment that is 10 years old or more.

Some city administrators suggested that the image of the city be divided into two areas—one of local residents and the other of visitors to the city.

The next meeting of city administrators is planned for later this month, McAnally said.

State Rep. James A. Kosteva (D-Canton Township), left, was joined by House Speaker Lewis N. Dodak (D-Birch Run area) in announcing legislation introduced by Kosteva which would mandate an annual enrollment period for Michigan Education Trust (MET) contracts. The bill would also allow rates for the pre-paid tuition contracts to be set no higher than the average percentage tuition increase of Michigan public college and universities during each enrollment period. The lawmakers said that despite the proven success of the program and the fact that recent audits show a $20 million surplus in the fund, it is being targeted for elimination by the Engler administration.

4 charged with $400,000 theft

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Feature Editor

As a result of a Federal Bureau of Investigation probe this week, FBI officials arrested and charged four suspects who allegedly stole more than $400,000 worth of new Bronco truck engines and tires from the assembly line at the Ford Wayne Assembly Plant.

On Feb. 24 four male suspects, including a Ford Motor Co. plant security guard and a plant loading dock worker, were arraigned in Federal Court.

FBI officials received information concerning a possible theft of property at the assembly plant, according to John Anthony, supervisory special agent for the FBI.

"We instituted a surveillance last Monday," Anthony said. "We observed two tractors and trailers leaving the plant. We observed the suspects make a rest stop in Belleville between Belleville Road and Rawsonville near I-94."

The arrest occurred about 5 a.m. Feb. 24 when the security guard and loading dock worker allegedly tried to sell two semi-trailers loaded with the engines and tires to an FBI agent, according to Anthony. FBI officials questioned eight suspects. They confiscated about 60 Bronco truck engines and 1,000 tires.

Only four of the suspects were charged, according to Anthony.

"We didn't have sufficient enough evidence to charge the other four suspects so they were released," Anthony said. "Of the four who were charged, two were employees of the Assembly Plant with one being a guard, the other two suspects were not employees."

A $15,000 bond was set for each of the suspects. Anthony said charges probably will include theft of interstate shipping transport which is a felony punishable by up to 25 years in prison.

Wayne has perfect Wolverine 'A' cage season Zebras trample Southgate

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Wayne Memorial sealed a perfect 14-0 Wolverine 'A' Conference basketball year Friday night with a lopsided 71-36 victory over Southgate Anderson.

Behind a balanced scoring attack sparked by Greg Hartman, Rick Barnes, Dontez Prewitt and B'onko Stadler, the champs jumped to a 14-6 first-period lead and never looked back.

Wayne was up by 19 points at the half, and there was little doubt about the outcome of this game after the initial half as coach Chuck Henry went to the bench indiscriminately.

"They (Southgate) used a deliberate offense against us," said Henry, whose team will take a 17-2 record into the Monday night playoffs at Garden City. Wayne was scheduled to play Tuesday against Ann Arbor Huron and the record doesn't reflect the results of that non-conference game.

"After the first period, we didn't really have any trouble with them."

Wayne piled up a 33-14 lead at the intermission as Hartman and Barnes went to work on the boards. The two Wayne sharpshooters split 26 points evenly between them for the evening.

Prewitt and Stadler, who each had 10 points, rounded out the balanced assault.

One of our goals was to win the conference title and we accomplished that goal. I didn't think we would do it with a 14-0 record, however.

- Chuck Henry

Henry, back at the helm of the Wayne cage machine after a one-year hiatus spent in Walled Lake, has now guided the Zebras to six titles in the nine-year history of the Wolverine 'A'.

"One of our goals was to win the conference title," noted Henry, "and we accomplished that goal. I didn't think we would do it with a 14-0 record, however. We're obviously happy about that and proud of these kids."

Henry warned, "This is not the time to sit on our laurels because the playoffs are in front of us."

Wayne will join natural rival, Westland John Glenn, which has been playing excellent ball of late, Livonia Franklin, Livonia Churchill and Garden City at the Class A district hosted by Garden City. The district playoffs will get under way on Monday.

Inkster buries Willow Run

Inkster will close out the Suburban Athletic Conference phase of the 1991-92 basketball season Friday night with a visit to Ecorse where coach Spencer Grant and his Vikings hope to improve upon a 6-5 SAC record.

"Our kids have been playing well," Grant said after his club buried Willow Run, 76-57, in a makeup game from a cancellation due to a December snowstorm. "I feel we are ready for the playoffs."

It sure looked that way at Willow Run. The Vikings' two sterling freshmen, Al White and James Outlaw dominated the boards, grabbing 28 rebounds between them, and the Flyers were really not in the duel after the initial period.

The duo's efforts staked Inkster to a 18-10 lead that the Vikings never relinquished. Inkster had a 24-25 cushion at halftime, then went on to outscore the Flyers 24-14 in the third period, giving Grant ample opportunities to substitute his regulars.

White, Jerry Jordan and Thalmus Martin each had five points and Outlaw sank six in that big third frame.

White, a 6-5 freshman, finished the evening with 15 points and 16 rebounds to go along with his three blocked shots. Outlaw, also a freshman, had 10 points and 12 rebounds. Jordan shared individual scoring honors with White. He had 15 points and eight assists while Carlos Johnson continued his torrid scoring streak and finished with 14.

Lamazar Williams accounted for 13 of the Flyers' points.

Inkster, if it is going to survive the Class B districts, will have to improve at the free throw line. Against Willow Run, the Vikings capitalized on 16 of 27 attempts. Willow Run didn't fare any better - the Flyers were 14 of 28.

Grant says his team is ready for the playoffs. The Vikings will travel to neighboring Robichaud where they will also find teams from Dearborn Divine Child, Annapolis, Crestwood, and Willow Run.

"We'll be ready," Grant says. "Our kids know that in a playoff format there is no margin of error. You lose one and you're out."

Wayne Memorial senior Lee Williams (32) is in position and on his way up for a basket in this play against Fordson. Wayne coasted to a perfect 14-0 record in the league and is considered the team to beat at the Class A district playoffs at Garden City. The playoffs get under way across the state on Monday. ## Loria, Bodden swim to league titles

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

With more than 100-points to spare, undefeated Monroe left no doubt as to the best team in the Wolverine 'A' Swim Conference this year.

The defending champs amassed 365 points, 119 more than its closest challenger, Wyandotte, to coast to the conference title at Wayne Memorial on Friday.

Wyandotte finished second at the league meet with 246 points, forcing Wayne Memorial, which has defeated the Bears in a dual meet, to share the runners-up spot.

Wayne had 236 points, followed by Belleville (209), Southgate Anderson (104), Trenton (66), Dearborn Fordson (59) and Lincoln Park (32).

Wayne and Belleville produced two gold medalists.

Jason Bodden, a senior, gave Wayne its lone first-place when he turned in a 22.73 for the 50-yard freestyle. Michael Loria, also a senior, was clocked in the winning time of 1:00.59 for the 100-yard backstroke. The Tigers finished 1-2 in the event as Loria's teammate, Tom Pilar, got the silver thanks to a 1:00.66 performance.

"It was an excellent meet, and there was a good turnout," said Michael Grueber of Wayne. "We knew that Monroe was going to be tough to catch. They definitely were the class of the league. "But I am thrilled about the season and our 10-1 record," Grueber continued. "Our only loss this year was to Monroe."

Wayne also had five silver medal winners. The Zebras' 200-yard medley relay team, made up of Mike Adkins, Danny Barnett, Ray Blair and Bodden showed up at the wall behind the Monroe foursome. Monroe carded a 1:46.13 for the gold; Wayne had a 1:45.17.

Then, Tom McIntyre got a silver after trailing teammate Bodden to the finish in the 50-freestyle. McIntyre's time was 22.96.

Bodden picked up a silver for his 50.68 effort in the 100-yard freestyle. He lost the gold to outstanding Wyandotte performer, Ken Johns, who had a 49.64 swim.

The Wayne 200-medley relay team of Barnett, Blair, McIntyre and Bodden was second to Monroe. The Trojans finished in 1:31.95 for the victory. Wayne churned a 1:32.28.

Andy Zukowski of Wayne led Barnett to the wire in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner's time was posted at 1:03.85. Barnett's was a fraction off (1:03.92) off the pace.

Wayne also had four third-place finishes: Blair, in the 200-yard individual medley (2:12.24); McIntyre, in the 100-yard freestyle (51.12); Blair again, in the 100-yard breaststroke (1:05.86), and the 400-yard freestyle relay with Tim Farrell, Dan Mussig, Mike Adkins and McIntyre (3:36.91).

Wayne ribbon winners included: Farrell, who was fourth in Registration for the club is being conducted at the high school pool. There is a small registration fee, according to coach Frank Vicchy.

Prospective participants are requested to contact Vicchy at 697-9494 for further information.

District titles up for grabs

By TERRY LYNCH
ANP Special Writer

Westland John Glenn and Wayne Memorial drew first-round byes as "March Madness" gets under way in Michigan on Monday.

Wayne, favored to win the district title at Garden City, will debut in the post-season tournament at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday against a Livonia Franklin quintet that has been unimpressive this season.

We weren't patient and we made mistakes that they capitalized on. Even in that fourth quarter I thought we had a chance, but we just ran out of gas.

- Pat Bennett
coach

In the nightcap Wednesday, the Glenn Rockets will take on the winner of the Livonia Churchill and Garden City game.

The first round pits host, Garden City, against Livonia Churchill. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

The championship at Garden City will be decided at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

In the meantime, the Rockets and Coach Pat Bennett had more than their share of problems against a Plymouth Salem club that outplayed the Westlanders 77-56.

"Salem came ready to play," said Bennett, "and we just couldn't stop Schneider."

Bobby Schneider was awesome as he connected on his first two three-pointers. The Rock junior guard went on to score 27 points to lead his team. Teammate James Head contributed 15 points.

The duel between the two Western Lakes Conference rivals was close the first two quarters. The Rockets trailed by eight (34-26) after the initial half as Ken Taylor and John Miller kept their team alive.

Taylor scored 16 points, 10 of those coming in the second half. Miller chipped in with 13.

"We weren't patient," pointed out Bennett, "and we made mistakes that they capitalized on. Even in that fourth quarter I thought we had a chance, but we just ran out of gas."

Salem also made good on 20 of 28 at the free throw line which definitely helped its cause.

Glenn was forced to play an overtime with out-of-conference rival, Dearborn Edsel Ford, before the Rockets managed to pull out a 47-45 victory in overtime.

Glenn jumped to a 11-point, first-period lead (16-5) and stayed out in front 28-16 at the half before the T-Birds came back and outscored the winners 19-14 in the third period and tied it with a 10-3 edge in the finale.

"We were rushing our shots and we squandered our chances at the line," said Bennett, whose Rockets made an anemic 13 of 28 charities.

Taylor and Aaron Scheffler, who hit the front ends of one-and-ones, provided the winning margin for the Rockets. Taylor finished with a game-high 15 points while Scheffler had 11.

The Rockets were scheduled to play Livonia Stevenson Tuesday night and, if the Rockets win, will play the winner of the Northville-Livonia Franklin game Saturday.

Davis wins regional gold medal

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Coach Sam Ellis could only speculate how good heavyweight Fred Davis would have been if Inkster High had had a wrestling program when the 6-3, 240-pound athlete was a freshman.

Inkster reinstated the sport in November of 1991 after a 25-year hiatus, and Davis, a senior, didn't waste any time establishing himself on the mats.

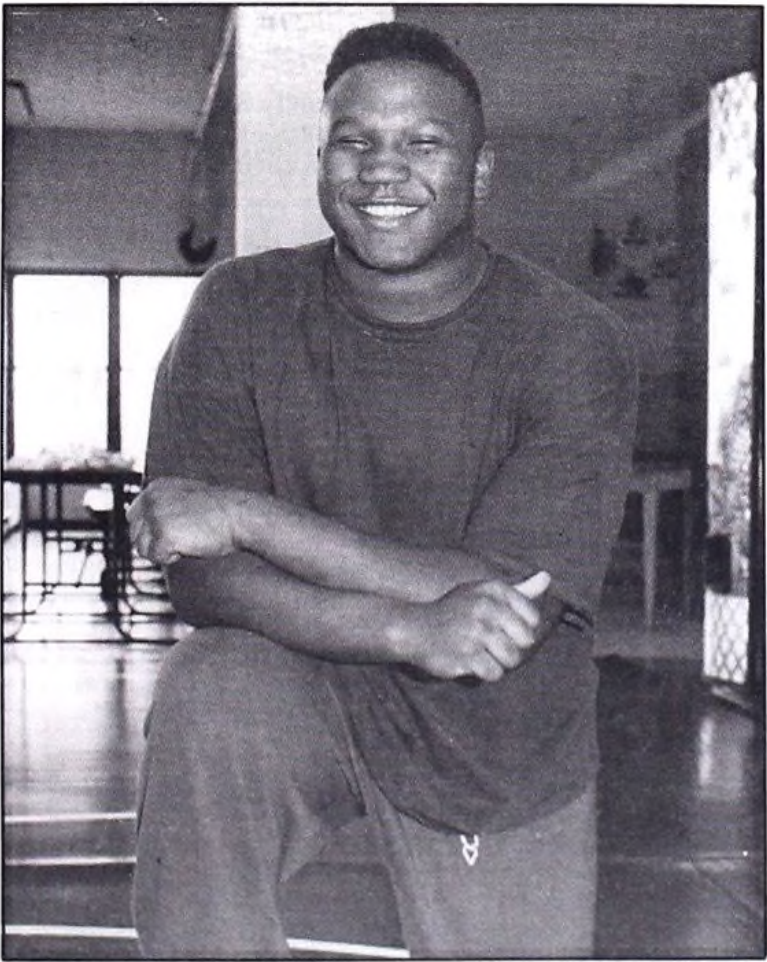

On Saturday, Davis added a Class B regional title to his accomplishments after the Viking grappler edged Robert Hager of Avondale, 9-8, in the finals.

Davis' victory qualified him for the state Class B championships to be conducted the weekend of March 13 in Battle Creek.

"Davis has a warehouse of natural athletic talent," noted Ellis. "He's a tough kid. And I look for him to be a medalist at the state meet."

Ellis acknowledges that the winning the state crown, with the number one and number two wrestlers returning, will be tough. "But," the Viking coach added, "I believe Davis will be up there, fighting for a medal."

Davis will take a 32-5 won-lost record to the finals. He picked up three wins at the regionals by defeating Matt Bainbridge of Royal Oak Kimball via a 1:14 pin in

Although he is a first-year wrestler, Inkster High heavyweight Fred Davis (above) is flexing his muscles on the high school mats. the first round. Then, Davis met and defeated Chris Smith of Mt. Clements Clintondale, 14-9.

In the finals, Davis came within an eyelash of pinning his opponent, but was forced to settle for a 9-8 victory.

Dan Bonnett of Plymouth-Salem shattered Michael Scully's dream of a gold at the Class A regional conducted at Salem. Bonnett surfaced with a 9-7 victory over the Romulus senior.

Scully, an All-Area

wrestler a year ago, boasts a 46-5 record. He stopped Howell's Curt Trieweiler in the first round (4:19) and got past Bedford's Jeff Dec, 4-3 in the semifinals before losing to Bonnett.

Scully had earned a shot at the coveted district crown with a pin over Marcus Askew of Ann Arbor Huron in 4:40 for the district title.

Romulus' Dale Gehringer (119) and Jason Drouillard (130) failed to survive the regional competitions.

Medal

Outstanding Belleville senior Stephen Davis came away from Salem with a silver medal in the 135-pound class after he lost in the finals to Todd Hicks of Bedford, 7-2.

And George Young, premier Plymouth-Canton 171-pounder, dashed Michael Komaromi's hopes of a gold for Belleville when Young won the showdown in 3-43.

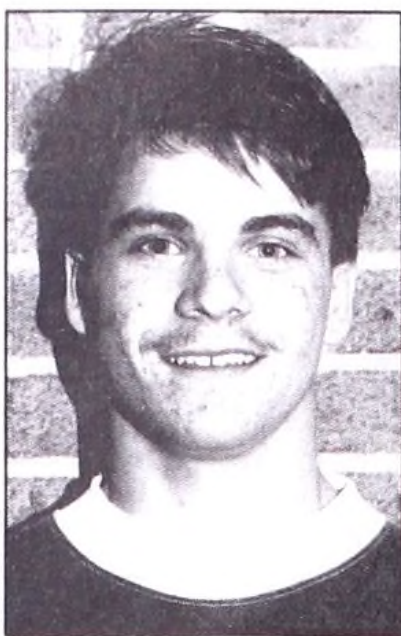

Westland John Glenn will be represented at state by regional champ, Mike Reeves, who placed first at regionals in the 152-pound class by turning back Jess Hurley of Bedford, 4-2.

In the team competition, Belleville came one-victory away from reaching the finals, however, coach Gerald Malecek's Tigers lost a heart-breaking decision to Brighton in the regional finals. Belleville reached the finals by ousting Novi.

"We lost three crucial matches in the middleweights which didn't help us at all," Malecek said. "We were so close (to winning), it really hurts to reflect upon what could have been."

Belleville finished the season with a 17-2 record and it was the fourth time in as many years that the Tigers have reached the regional finals.

Spartans snap their mat streak

With the help of Belleville wrestler Jay Helm, the Michigan State University Spartans snapped their four-match losing streak last week.

Helm, a 142-pounder, was one of five Spartan victors as MSU edged Notre Dame, 18-15.

Helm's 11-2 victory over Michael Fox helped improve his overall record to 14-16-2 with three pins on the season. The former Detroit Catholic Central star was an All-State selection as a prep.

MSU is 1-5 in the Big 10 Conference and was scheduled to meet seventh-ranked Wisconsin in their final dual meet of the 1991-1992 season last Saturday.

the 500-yard freestyle (5:26.73); Barnett, who finished fifth in the 100-yard butterfly (1:02.72); Adkins, fifth in the 100-yard backstroke (1:04.09). Adkins also reached the finals in the 200-yard freestyle and finished with a sixth-place ribbon (2:03.57).

Mussig also was sixth in the 100-yard butterfly (1:05.37).

Ken Tolliver of Belleville picked up a pair of medals thanks to his 5:22.23 performance in the 500-yard freestyle. He lost the gold to Josh Zimmerman of Monroe who had a 4:54.88 swim. Tolliver was third (1:56.02) to Zimmerman (1:50.04) and Dan Sareff (1:55.49) of Monroe.

Loria came back to win a fifth-place ribbon for his efforts in the 200-yard individual medley (2:14.39), and teammate Malcolm Lynch was sixth in the event (2:15.87).

Filar also was awarded a ribbon for his sixth-place finish in the 50-yard freestyle.

Other Belleville swimmers who came away with medals included Filar, Brent Held, Phil Bongiorno and Tolliver, who were third (1:37.13) in the 200-yard freestyle. The Tigers' 200-medley relay of Filar, Held, Loria and Lynch finished fourth (1:47.30) and the 400-yard freestyle relay of Tolliver, Devin Townsend, Bongiorno and Mike Loria, also was fourth (3:41.03).

Belleville coach Frank Vicchy said he was pleased with the overall performance by his team.

"Of the 63 swimmers by our swimmers, 57 of those were lifetime bests," Vicchy said. "When you get that kind of improvement, you have to be pleased."

Vicchy said he is looking forward to the 1992-93 season when 14 of his swimmers will be returning to the roster.

On the move

Relocation is boon to local business

By RACHEL ROZMYS
ANP Staff Writer

Dennis LeMaitre is looking to both the future and the past for his success, and as he marks the anniversary of his first year in his new location, he must be on the right track.

LeMaitre owns and operates U.S. Print at 6570 N. Wayne Road in Westland and will celebrate the first anniversary in his new location this week.

"The move tripled our square footage," said LeMaitre. The increased capacity made the print shop more efficient, and as a result, sales have increased by 18 percent. "Even in a recession we're still growing," LeMaitre said.

U.S. Print was located next door to the present shop for five years before the move. The bigger shop allowed for a larger lobby area, and allows more work room for employees.

LeMaitre said to maximize his earning potential, he constantly looks for ways to increase capacity. "The only way to increase profits is to increase capacity," he said. Right now, U.S. Print is operating at about 80 percent capacity. He said keeping capacity above his actual output gives the company room to expand.

LeMaitre plans to expand business even more in the next year, by offering franchises and limited partnerships. He said although the Detroit area is saturated with printers, the industry is becoming more highly specialized, and that will change the nature of the competition in this area.

"Our industry is on the crest of a new generation with new technology that will change our industry," LeMaitre said. "Printers who take advantage of this new technology will come out ahead."

The new technology will involve communications systems linking copiers and printers across the country. If, for example, a customer needs a copy of a report delivered to Chicago, and there is only an hour to do it. With this new technology, a copy of the report could be sent by fax to U.S. Print where it will be typeset, and then sent to a printer in Chicago who will print it and send it to the recipient via courier. LeMaitre said that cross-country printing could be done in minutes using these systems.

"Guys who are in the financial position to (purchase this system) will survive," LeMaitre said.

The cost of this system starts between $40,000 and $60,000 and goes up. "It's the old adage, you have to spend money to make money," LeMaitre said.

According to LeMaitre, his business consists primarily of commercial accounts. He considers U.S. Print an in-house print shop for large corporations. He maintains all printed documents in a file, so all a company representative needs to do is call when something is needed. He said, "They don't have to go to the cost of keeping an in-house print shop."

As with any other business, customer loyalty is the key to LeMaitre's success. Many of his customers have been with U.S. Print since the day it opened, and they know they can count on LeMaitre if they need anything. He remembered a customer who called early one morning because he was going on a business trip later that day and ran out of business cards. Ordinarily, an order like that would take a few days, but LeMaitre went out of his way to make sure the cards were done by 4 p.m. so the customer could catch his plane. "We can't just tell them, 'Sorry, I can't help you today,'" LeMaitre said. "That's what makes us successful."

Doctor defends radiology equipment at local center

The chief of the Oakwood Hospital Department of Radiology recently contested the findings of a 1991 Michigan Department of Public Health study which questioned the image quality of one machine.

A letter, drafted by the DPH, questioned a machine at the Oakwood Breast Care Center, 845 Monroe Street in Dearborn. Dr. Robert Songe, chief of radiology at Oakwood Hospital, defended the equipment at the center.

"In August 1991, the American College of Radiology and the DPH both certified our equipment as meeting proper standards," Songe said. "The certificates attesting to that fact are displayed on the walls of the facility."

Songe said Oakwood officials believe the state evaluation is in error.

"We have three independent evaluations which all indicate satisfactory image quality," Songe said. "The American College of Radiology evaluated the images one week prior to the Michigan DPH's study and certified that the images were satisfactory."

Oakwood performs testing above and beyond that required by law, according to Songe.

"The image quality is checked daily by x-raying a phantom," Songe said. "This is the same type of phantom used by the American College of Radiology, and probably also by the Michigan DPH."

"On the day the DPH evaluated our images, our own study which we retain, indicated satisfactory images as defined by the DPH's 'A' or 'B' rating."

An evaluation by a consultant physicist, who independently measures image quality, rated the equipment as satisfactory, according to the above-mentioned standards, Songe said.

"We will be communicating our findings to the DPH and welcome their re-evaluation of our equipment," Songe said. "We believe that they are in error and, regret the concern this may have caused our patients and physicians."

Movie fans can win theater tickets

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

For the next month, film fans will be naming their own choices for the 1992 Oscars.

After the Academy Award committee released the names of nominees on Wednesday, avid movie-goers began to mull through the past performances of the Oscar nominees to predict the winners before the academy presents trophies to their choices.

Named to the top Oscar categories were:

• Best Picture: Beauty and the Beast, Bugsy, JFK, The Price of Tides, The Silence of the Lambs.

• Best Actor: Warren Beatty, Robert DeNiro, Anthony Hopkins, Nick Nolte, Robin Williams.

• Best Actress: Geena Davis, Laura Dern, Jodie Foster, Bette Midler, Susan Sarandon.

• Best Supporting Actor: Tommy Lee Jones, Harvey Keitel, Ben Kingsley, Michael Lerner, Jack Palance.

• Best Supporting Actress: Diane Ladd, Juliette Lewis, Kate Nelligan, Mercedes Ruehl, Jessica Tandy.

• Best Director: John Singleton, Barry Levinson, Oliver Stone, Jonathan Demme, Ridley Scott.

Other categories are for best original screenplay, adapted screenplay, foreign film, art direction, cinematography, costume design, documentary feature, documentary short subject, film editing, makeup, music original score, music original song, animated short film, live action short film, sound, sound effects editing and visual effects.

Among the films reviewed in Associated Newspapers, our staff gives a "thumbs up" to The Silence of the Lambs as best film and Robert DeNiro as best actor for his chilling role in Cape Fear. Jodie Foster's role in The Silence of the Lambs received a nod, as did the pair of Thelma & Louise stars, Geena Davis and Susan Sarandon. Our choices for best supporting actor and actress are any of the nominees other than Jack Palance, who portrayed the aging cowboy in City Slickers, and Jessica Tandy, the queen mother of actresses, for her role in Fried Green Tomatoes.

Best director honors should go to either Barry Levinson for Bugsy or Jonathan Demme for Silence of the Lambs.

Although Beauty and the Beast gained an "A" rating from our reviewer, nonetheless, we do not believe an animated film - no matter how well crafted - should be considered on an equal basis with motion pictures.

After listing our predictions, our staff admits that their guesses are no better than the predictions of other film fans. Therefore, we are inviting readers to submit their predictions for the best picture, actor, actress, supporting actor and actress and director to Oscar Contest, Associated Newspapers, P.O. Box 578, Wayne, Mich. 48184. Entries must be postmarked by March 25.

The reader who makes the most correct predictions will receive a dozen movie passes so that he or she will be able to view the new series of films and evaluate the potential Oscar nominees for next year.

In the event that more than one person correctly predicts the six top winners, a random drawing of the winning entries will determine the prize winner.

Man faces sex charges

A March 10 calendar conference has been scheduled for a Wayne resident before Detroit Wayne County Recorder's Court Judge John P. O'Brien who is charged with nine counts of first degree criminal sexual conduct.

Robert Campbell, 20, was arraigned Oct. 29, 1991 before 29th District Court Judge Carolyn Archbold. A $90,000 bond was set.

The incidents involve juveniles, according to Wayne Deputy Police Director John Colligan.

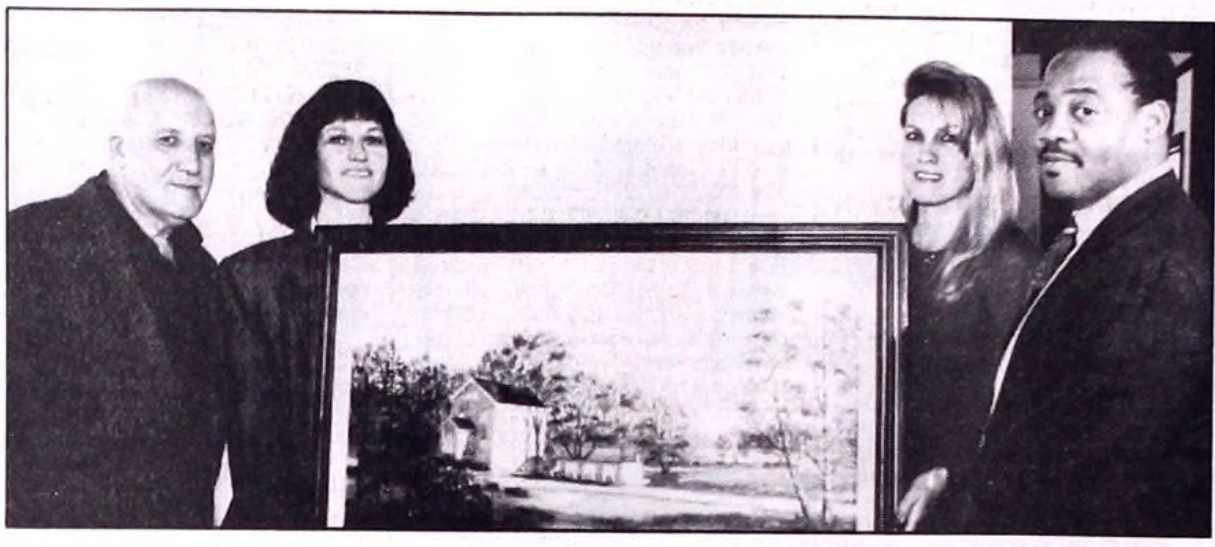

"We received the initial complaint from one of the mothers of the juveniles," Colligan said. "We cannot release any more information due to juveniles involved."

A Nov. 7 preliminary exam was staged for Campbell before Archbold, and the bond was reduced to $20,000 or 10 percent.

If Campbell is found guilty of all nine counts, he could face up to life in prison, according to Colligan. Campbell does not have a previous criminal record.

New Ford vans provide supplemental air bags

For the first time by any manufacturer of a full-size van, Ford will provide driver-side supplemental air bags as standard equipment on the 1992 E-150 and E-250 Econoline vans.

The 1992 Aerostar minivan also will have standard driver-side supplemental air bags.

In addition, passenger-side supplemental air bags will be offered for the first time on the new Ford Taurus and Mercury Sable, according to Robert H. Munson, director of Ford's Automotive Safety Office.

"These new entries continue Ford's tradition of air bag leadership," Munson said. "No other manufacturer has the air bag experience of Ford."

Ford has 1.7 million air bag-equipped vehicles on the road, more than any other manufacturer worldwide. Ford automobiles have 23 billion miles of supplemental air bag travel experience, including 12,000 deployments in vehicle accidents.

The air bag system, when used with properly-worn safety belts, provides additional protection for the occupant in moderate-to-severe frontal collisions.

In 1992 passenger cars, Ford will offer driver-side and right front passenger-side air bags as optional standard equipment in six car lines, more than any other domestic manufacturer.

The Lincoln Town Car and Continental have passenger-side air bags as standard equipment. The Ford Crown Victoria and Mercury Grand Marquis offer passenger-side air bags as optional equipment, in addition to the Ford Taurus and Mercury Sable. Ford was the first U.S. manufacturer to offer standard passenger-side air bags (1989 Lincoln Continental).

Supplemental driver-side air bags are standard equipment in nine Ford car lines for 1992. They are Ford, Mustang, Taurus, and Crown Victoria, Mercury Capri, Sable and Grand Marquis, and Lincoln Continental, Town Car and Mark VII. They are available as an option on Ford Tempo and Mercury Topaz.

Air bags are only one of many significant safety features in 1992 model Ford and Lincoln-Mercury cars, light trucks and vans.

In 1992, Ford will be the first manufacturer to have all of its light trucks meet the new 1994 federal roof crush standard for trucks. The truck standard is more stringent than the passenger car standard, which Ford light trucks, vans and utility vehicles have met for several years.

"We know the consumer ranks safety as a very important product attribute," Munson said. "And as a customer-driven company, we do our best to respond to those wants."

Another important safety feature, the antilock brake system (ABS) is offered on 10 car lines for 1992.

The new 1992 Ford Econoline Club Wagon and van include supplemental air bags as a safety feature.

Antilock brake systems are standard on Lincoln Town Car, Continental and Mark VII, as well as Ford Taurus, SHO, Thunderbird Supercoupe and Mercury Cougar XR7. They are available as an option on Ford Crown Victoria, Mercury Grand Marquis, Ford Taurus, Mercury Sable, Ford Probe, Ford Thunderbird and Mercury Cougar.

Rear wheel ABS is standard on the Ford Aerostar and Econoline. Ford is the only manufacturer to offer rear wheel antilock brake systems on all light trucks.

All Ford cars and light trucks have lap and shoulder safety belts for outboard front and rear passengers.
